1972 – 2002

In cooperation with the
National Collegiate Athletic Association

On
September 28, 2002

At
NCAA Conference Center and NCAA Hall of Champions
White River State Park, 700 West Washington St.
Indianapolis, IN 46204

The IWhA Morning Program is from 9:30 a.m. to Noon at the NCAA Conference Center

Keynote speaker: Donna Lopiano, Ph.D., a former athlete, coach and university athletic director who is now the executive director of the Women's Sports Foundation, a non-profit group dedicated to equal access for women and girls to sports.

Honoree: Former Indiana Senator Birch Bayh, the Senate sponsor and co-author of Title IX, the 1972 federal law that opened doors for women in education and sports.

Panelists: Indiana sports experts will discuss Title IX in Indiana.
Panelists include Indiana University Basketball Coach Kathleen Bennett, legendary Indiana sports pioneer Patricia Roy, and sports historian Annie Coleman of Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis (IUPUI).

NOTE: There is limited seating for the morning program! See registration form on back.

\ We would like to thank the co-sponsors of the IWhA morning program, the American Association of University Women and the Indiana Commission on Women. We are grateful to the NCAA and the IUPUI Athletic Dept. for their generous support.*

The IWhA and the NCAA are jointly presenting an Afternoon Program from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the NCAA at the Hall of Champions.

- Pioneering female athletes in Indiana will be stationed at the NCAA Hall of Champions to share their inspiring personal stories with the public.
- View the acclaimed national photography exhibit "Game Face: What does a female athlete look like?"

PLUS!

Every attendee will receive a ticket to the Jaguars Invitational championship collegiate softball tournament scheduled from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. at nearby IUPUI softball fields. See women's college softball teams from around the state compete. See the fruits of Title IX!

Title IX was enacted by the U.S. Congress in 1972 and states: "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance."
